Who we are?

Established in 2016, Thinc Products decided to explore the challenges of teaching & lecturing on a day-to-day basis.

We found that in focusing on students, the educators were neglecting their health, jeopardizing a long fruitful career.

Our modus operandi is to research and develop products & resources which will benefit educators globally.

The Stats:

20%

20% of teachers are affected each year with voice problems (Pemberton, 2008).

Australian Classrooms are amongst the most noisiest in the world (Sydney Morning Herald 2013).

We must preserve teachers number ONE teaching tool, their voice

Damaged vocal cords could mean the end of your career.
